1. At the request of Mr. John Moore, a local business man, I arranged a meeting for the fiction writer, Mrs. Maude Parker Pavenstedt, with Col. Hansen. Mrs. Pavenstedt was anxious to ask certain background questions for an espionage novel which she is preparing.

2. I informed Mr. Bourbon of the office of Senator O'Connor that CIA had nothing whatsoever to do with the recent State Dept. revocation of the passport of Mr. [REDACTED] (See memorandum to Col. Hansen from Col. [REDACTED] dated 29 August 1951). After checking with Mr. [REDACTED] and Col. Edwards, and after Mr. [REDACTED] office had checked with Mr. Nichols in the Passport Division of the State Department, it was apparent that CIA had not been involved in this case in any respect.
